PICTURES ARE THE BEST IN OREGON.

Late Eastern News.

The Tribune's dispatch says there is reason to believe in the report from New Orleans via Richmond, announcing the presence of Government vessels at the final passes of the Mississippi. They are doubtless acting under instructions given long since in regard to protecting the men building the batteries on each side of the river above the point where the five mouths diverge, for the purpose of effectually blockading them. All the guns to be mounted are probably the twenty-eight 9-inch Dahlgreens, which were ordered to Fort Pickens, and not being required there were put ashore at Tortugas. The Mississippi will be effectually closed by these batteries. Twenty vessels could not do it as well.

THE TERRIBLE DISEASE "DIPTHERIA."—The Boston Journal, says: "One of the saddest cases of mortality that has come to our notice is found in the Millet family, which resides in Minot, within a radius of two miles. The family has lost fourteen children by diptheria within the past few months; and not a single child or person of any other family in the vicinity of town has died of this disease. Two of the children in the same branch of the family died the same day and same hour. Three brothers of the family lost each three children. A sister of the brothers lost three children; two others lost each of them one, making fourteen children in all out of one family, who have died of diptheria within a few months."

The Richmond papers are filled with accounts of highway robberies, stabbings on the streets, and burglaries. The Richmond Dispatch of the 18th, in noticing them, says:

Our readers may breakfast on horrors this morning. The frequent outrages now being perpetrated upon our citizens cry aloud for a vigilant police. Let the officers keep a sharp lookout for these diabolical wretches. It is probable that one band of scoundrels have commited all of the astounding crimes which, during the last week, have begun to ruin the good name of our city.

The Whig, of the 19th inst., says:

The war, in drawing from our midst the most turbulent and unruly of our population has also supplied their places with fit representatives of the most dangerous and corrupt classes of other cities—ruffians who would cut a throat for fifty cents, and perpetrate the grossest outrages against law and humanity without the slightest compunctions of conscience.

PEACE MEETING IN MARYLAND.—Eight soldiers of the Scott Life Guard, on leave of absence, visited a peace meeting at Port Deposit, Maryland, on the 21st, displaying miniature American flags. One of the attendants on the meeting snatched away one of the soldiers' flags, and was about to seize another, when the soldier cut the "peace" man's throat from ear to ear. The melee becoming general, another member of the "peace" meeting was also killed, and several wounded. Three of the soldiers were considerably injured.

FROM NEW ORLEANS.—Private advices are to the 10th September. Reports were current that the United States forces had cut off the steam boat lines between New Orleans and Mobile; that a Federal descent had been made on the Texas coast, and that there was a large Federal force in the Mississippi. It was expected that New Orleans would be attacked; there was great excitement. The capture of Hatteras Inlet had a depressing effect upon the South.

Potter's Investigating Committee adjourned to-day. The first report includes the names of 287 employees, against whom the charges of treason were presented. To-morrow the second report will be presented, giving 235 more. Investigations will be resumed at the commencement of the session of Congress.

Five Colonels stand ready to command five regiments of Illinois cavalry to be raised, the acceptance of which is pressed on the War Department by Governor Yates and others. The Department is willing to accept one, and the others as infantry. The Illinoisians are also pressing the claims of Chicago for the Western arsenal.

Brigham Young has lost the Uinta Valley, one of the most fertile in Utah, after having announced his intention to settle it with the Saints. The President, by an order dated in October, has directed an Indian Reservation to be made there.

The Artisans' Bank of New Orleans is circulating fives cut in two, each piece to represent two and one-half dollars.

Federal prisoners sent to New Orleans were escorted to their quarters in that city by a colored company.

The Daily Oregonian

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY

TUESDAY MORNING, OCT [illegible] 1861

The "Loyalty Dodge"

"I think there are few [illegible] word. [illegible] times. Do you want the arms of the United States to triumph in this rebellion [illegible] you, if in the Senate [illegible] vote supplies for the army? [illegible] swer. No Union man would recommend the people to 'invoke God to paralyze our own arms.'" The first is manifestly [illegible] the last looks to us like a confession of [illegible] incautiously made.

It is said that the fox which had his tail cut off was very anxious that all his brethren should submit to the same operation. [illegible] Curry thinks that Mr Dennison should [illegible] answer any questions in regard to his loyalty. He wishes him to occupy the same position as he does himself, and chides him that in the [illegible] Mountaineer he has said that he is for the faithful execution of all the laws of the country and for the preservation of the Union. We, on the contrary, approve of Mr Dennison's respect for public opinion, but regret that in the publication to which we have referred he had not gone further than he has done. In fact he has said no more than J. C. Breckenridge would have said ten minutes before he muffled himself up, dressed in disguise, and deserted to the rebels. We think that Mr Dennison should go further and say, if he can truly represent his feelings and sentiments, that he is in favor of the Government crushing the rebellion by the means it has adopted for that purpose. That would be a full and satisfactory reply to every inquiry, and would place him in a fair position before the people.

The Call for a Regiment of Volunteers

We have no reason to doubt the statement published by us yesterday, that government will call for a regiment of volunteers from Oregon. The appointments to command are —Thos Cornelius, Colonel, R F Maury, Lieut Colonel, Benj F Harding, Quartermaster and Mustering officer. We have no doubt that the volunteers enlisting under Capt Geo B Curry, of the Dalles, will be accepted as a portion of this regiment. Capt Curry has designated the following persons to enroll volunteers: at Eugene City, [illegible] W Curry, at Portland, W. C Hull, at Lafayette, J R McBride, at Champoeg, J D Crawford,—and C B Crandall. If this business is managed well, a regiment can now be collected. We have no idea the service will continue over a year.

The appointments for the regiment are excellent. Col Cornelius is a well known citizen of Washington County. Mr Maury resides at Jacksonville, he was educated at West Point. Mr Harding is a resident of Marion County.

Traitor Consistency

The employment of Indians by the British in her wars with this country has always been denounced as inhuman barbarity. No portion of our people were more indignant than the chivalry of the South. And yet they are now doing themselves what they condemned in England. And their friends here have not a word to say against it. If silence gives consent, the Advertiser approves of their employment. There is a regiment of Choctaws in McCulloch's army. It is among the things possible, that these savages may become so disgusted by the greater cruelties of the Southern rebels as to go home half civilized.

Mr Rufus Henry arrived here from Cariboo on Monday night. He left on the 27th Sept. The snow was then falling on the mountains. Gold was abundant, but only about two months in the year could be spent in obtaining it.

Treason! Treason!

The Times [illegible] contains the following statement:

[illegible] J D Davis with three [illegible] Scott with [illegible] 000 [illegible] than [illegible] the South [illegible]

[illegible]

Mr Dennison [illegible] two parties now [illegible] traitors.

[illegible] Well, [illegible] the [illegible] that place with [illegible] There is [illegible] had been murdered. [illegible] about the matter. [illegible] had been burned. [illegible] struck the halter, thus accounting for the blood [illegible]

[illegible] the [illegible] establishment [illegible] Portland. A [illegible] contemplated measure [illegible] the Custom House from Astoria to this city. [illegible] the building of a Custom House [illegible] building of sufficient size [illegible] and Superintendent of Indian Affairs [illegible] suitable [illegible] urged.

SAN FRANCISCO ITEMS.—The U S frigate Saranac came down from Mare Island on the [illegible] and will cruise down the coast to protect the treasure steamers.

The Orizaba [illegible] left San Francisco on the 21st. She carried [illegible] million [illegible] Among the passengers are General Sumner, Colonel Merchant, Senator Nesmith, Captains Judd, Stewart, [illegible] Botts, Briggs and Green, Lieutenants [illegible] Gillis, Williston, Sinclair, Warner, Hardin, Dandy, Livingston and Kipp.

Capt [illegible] has a graduate at West Point of 1840 [illegible] at San Francisco, has received the appointment of Brigadier General.

Gratuitous Insult

EDITOR OREGONIAN.

In the Advertiser of this morning, in the telegraphic dispatch under the head of Baltimore, Oct 17, there is an account of some Federal troops crossing the river at Harper's Ferry and in the face of the large enemy's force, driving them, capturing a heavy gun and returning with their trophy, [illegible] expressed [illegible] which they did in good order as usual. The [illegible] intended to be conveyed was, that such was the disorderly line of the troops, that as usual, at the present time they retired in good order. In [illegible] [illegible] this [illegible] phrase—painfully [illegible] insulting meaning—[illegible] in parenthesis—the [illegible] which was to have it [illegible] Federal forces usually [illegible]

As a Union man, I desire [illegible] Advertiser that even in this [illegible] mean [illegible] I understand him—that [illegible] man enough to insult or [illegible] [illegible] manner [illegible] their [illegible] thrusts, that cannot very well be parried.

The Union men whose names appear in the Advertiser as advertisers, must have a great deal of patience to submit to this and other continuous and gratuitous insults in that paper. The editor himself must have a high opinion of them.

REVIEW BY GENERAL SUMNER.—On Thursday evening, Oct [illegible], the [illegible] Guard and [illegible] McMahon [illegible] San Francisco, where they [illegible] B V Sumner—The [illegible] was [illegible] "My [illegible] friends [illegible] [illegible] Irishmen [illegible] I am going into the field, my friends, and I [illegible] with [illegible] give it to [illegible] applause. [illegible] If I should pull through this campaign [illegible] [illegible] I feel grateful for this kindness [illegible] [illegible] well.

Good from the Catholic Telegraph.—McMaster, of the New York Freeman's Journal, has been sent to Fort Lafayette. He was [illegible] In reference to this arrest, we have [illegible] a [illegible] It used to be said there was no treason in Secession, because there was no Government in the United States. Now when Government makes itself felt it is called tyranny."

AFFAIRS IN SOUTH WESTERN MISSOURI.—Lane had advanced upon Osceola [illegible] captured a supply train [illegible] $100,000 in money. [illegible] burnt the town because he was fired upon from the houses. There was no [illegible] McCullough was [illegible] found—supposed to be near Springfield.

FROM BIRD'S POINT.—On the [illegible] Sherman's [illegible] were attacked while guarding the Charleston bridge by 2,000 secessionists. They lost [illegible] killed [illegible] rals missing.

THE ENEMY ON THE POTOMAC.—It is evident that the enemy are slowly retiring from their positions on the Potomac, and that Mr Chilladin is [illegible] A [illegible] and.

THE BARBAROUS ENEMY.—It is said that the Federal prisoners at Richmond are [illegible] barbarously treated. The wounded are subjected [illegible] amputations when not necessary, and deaths are unnecessarily frequent.

CITY.

THAT PIE.—How often, in this selfish and cold world, does anybody think of the printer, as he toils away night after night for the good of the people? Occasionally there is one that thinks of us—one who appreciates our labor. Mrs. H. L. Pittock presented her boys with a nice peach pie this evening. In these warlike times one would have almost taken it for a mortar and bomb, but, on carefully unwrapping it, we found instead of those death dealing instruments, a delicious pie—one that just melted in our mouths, like the boys exactly—however, it was "too good to last long." We all join in thanking Mrs. Pittock for the present.

FUNERAL NOTICE.—The funeral of Rev. M. Clamont will take place to-day at eleven o'clock, from his late residence on First street. Members of Willamette Lodge No. 2, A. F. and A. M., and all other Master Masons in good standing, are invited to meet at the Masonic Hall at eleven o'clock, to accompany the body to the grave.

BODY RECOVERED.—The Cowlitz brought up last night the body of the late steward of that boat. It was picked up yesterday morning by the Multnomah. Coroner McCoy took the body in charge and will hold an inquest to-day.

RECORDER'S COURT.—Yesterday morning His Honor sentenced Michael Butler to four days imprisonment, for being drunk and disorderly the day previous.

SAILS TO DAY.—The steamer Pacific will sail this morning at 11 o'clock.

Ex-Gov. Wise has run himself perfectly down. The federals have kept him running ever since he appeared on the Kanawha.—Gen. Price, of Mo., it seems has been taken with another running.

Mr. J. C. Strong supposes that it will require eight month's time to finish the telegraph from Yreka to Portland.

The Argus says they had a refreshing scene in walking the Union into the water at Canemah. Capt. Apperson will have her running in a short time.

It is said that that the Pony Express will be discontinued on the completion of the telegraph line.

The first stone of the State Capitol at Sacramento was laid on the 19th inst.

NEWSPAPERARCHIVE®

NEWSPAPERARCHIVE®

A MODEL JAPANESE YOUNG LADY.—A face of classical beauty, according to Japanese notions, combined with great modesty of expression, black hair, turned up and ornamented with long gold pins and scarlet crape flowers, an outer robe of the most costly silk, embroidered in gold, and confined at the wrist by a scarf upon which the highest female art had been expended in ornament, and tied in a large bow behind, the ends flowing over a long train formed by seven or eight petticoats, each longer and richer than the other. A sailor may pry no farther into the mysteries of female finery. She must be accomplished in music, embroidery, singing, and above all, skilfully preparing verses for the delectation of her future lord. Duty, a bundle of keys, weekly accounts, and good housewifery, are all very well. They are expected—the Japanese gentleman requires all that; but he wishes—nay, insists upon the marriage yoke being entwined with roses, and padded with the softest silk—it must not chafe; if it does, off he goes to his club, or, what is nearly as bad, his tea-house. The law allows him to do so, and is he not lord of the land? The consequence is, that Japanese ladies are very accomplished, very beautiful, and bear high characters in all that constitutes charming women; and their admirers, touched with their many attractions, declare, in Eastern metaphor, that for such love as theirs the world were indeed well lost.—ONCE A WEEK.

A purse without money is better than a head without brains; the first may be filled, the other can't.

"Father, what do you mean by raising things in a hot-house?" "Why, my dear boy, you are being raised in a house too hot to hold me sometimes." The mother seized a broom stick, but the man made tracks.

As our season advances, even the innocent follies of youth drop off. They are the barren blossoms, yielding nothing ornamental and necessary to the produce though they be. We cannot, like the orange, bear fruit and flowers at the same time.

Motto for a pig of lead; "If the rebellion continue, I wish I may be shot!"

Why must a Yankee speculator be subject to water on the brain? Because he has always A NOTION in his head.

Union medicine—"The hospital at Fortress Monroe has been quite full, but nearly all the cases are now cured."—That proves the excellence of Monroe Doct'rin'.

THE UTAH TROOPS.—Col. P. St. George Cooke, their veteran commander, has reached St. Louis. His troops, 600 in number, are expected at Fort Leavenworth 4th October.

THE GREAT EXPECTED BATTLE.—The St. Louis Democrat says this will not take place before the 10th October. It is expected that Price will make his stand at Lexington, using Mulligan's entrenchments.
